

August 3, 2007

To Whom It May Concern:

Mrs. Kristy Scott has requested a letter of reference from me as she begins a home daycare. I have known Kristy for seventeen years. During these years Kristy has always been actively involved with the care of children. Kristy's experience with caring for children began in her own childhood home. Her mother provided foster care for children. The children in their home received exceptional care and compassion. Kristy's strongest asset is her ability to remain calm and composed in the midst of challenges. A number of the children Kristy and her mother cared for were children who had emotional, physical or mental challenges.

I have also worked parallel with Kristy as we cared for children in a babysitting setting as teenagers. In addition, Kristy has frequently cared for my own two children. Kristy demonstrated her strong ability to be patient and unwavering when caring for our daughter at two-months old. Our daughter who was being nursed at the time and quite colicky did not like to be away from myself. Kristy exerted all means and was successful in keeping our daughter calm while we were away for the evening.

If there were anyone I could chose to care for my children on an ongoing basis. It would be Kristy. In recent months the following comments have been heard about Kristy and how well she works with children. One of the groomsman from her recent wedding shared, "Kristy is the type of person who could have ten kids in her care and not get upset." Another person who has knows Kristy longer than myself was heard commenting about how Kristy without hesitation or anxiety would take six kids to the zoo. These children would be obedient and respectful to her.

Kristy is not only fair and consistent with other peoples' children; she also demonstrates fairness and consistency with her son. Kristy is an ideal individual to have care for children.

If there is need for further clarification or contact, do not hesitate to contact me at home.

Sincerely,

Barbara E. Hoier
1503 James Street
Plattsmouth, NE 68048
402.296.2466
banddhoier@windstream.net